

ORA UPDATE MARCH '13

March 13, 2013

Just two important things to share! Please mark your calendars!

Membership Dues “experiment” & SQUARE training!

one membership level-one price!

Dues for the 2013-14 year will be reduced to $50. There will be only one level of membership!

The price for renting a booth at the Celebration of Art will remain at a fixed $100 for members and $115 for juried guests. More info about membership benefits will follow at our next meeting.

In order to make this dues reduction possible we need to increase our membership. We ask that each of you help by recruiting one new member! We'll discuss this as well at our next meeting.

learn how to be square!

April 21st!

EVERYone planning to be in the JAM lobby show in May and/or Celebration of Art should attend this brief and informative meeting.

Learn how to use the square for credit card purchases, get detailed information about the JAM lobby show and get a calendar of ORA events.

We will structure the session so that artists not involved with the Lobby show can leave after you get trained on ORA's new Square system. WE REALLY NEED EVERYONE TO ATTEND
